

Beginning June 1, 2021, the Utah Labor Commission will re-open to the public.

You can receive assistance and information in one of three ways:

1. Online

Go to laborcommission.utah.gov for information and assistance. The information and required forms for the following services are available online:

- Filing a wage claim
- Filing an employment or housing discrimination charge
- Obtaining a workers' compensation coverage waiver

2. Call

For questions regarding workers' compensation claims or other services not answered online, call (801) 530-6800 for assistance.

3. In Person

Meetings by appointment are preferred and we will do our best to accommodate same day appointments. Please call (801) 530-6800 to set up an appointment to meet with a representative.